

Architecture ● Interior Design ● Historic Preservation

EDUCATION

- Parsons School of Design, New York, New York 2005-2008
Master of Architecture
Thesis Focus: Adaptive Reuse/Historic Preservation
- Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia 1999-2003
Bachelor of Art in History
Minor Concentration in Spanish and Architectural History

EXPERIENCE

- BergVidal Architects, New York, New York 2006-2008
Designer
- Served as project manager for residential project
 - Met with and worked one-on-one with mechanical, structural engineers and contractors
 - Conducted site visits and put together site analysis and diagrams
 - Spearheaded presentations for clients and prospective clients
 - Put together budget proposals and construction schedules
 - Ensured projects met city and state zoning codes and ADA compliance
- RVA Associates, Brooklyn, New York 2003-2004
Designer, Office Manager
- Drew up and developed plans, sections, and elevations for residential and commercial projects
 - Prepared construction documents for kitchens and bathrooms
 - Wrote and edited project proposals and client communications
 - Managed day-to-day operations for small start-up firm
 - Served as liaison between clients, contractors and principal
 - Built study, proposal and final scale models
 - Worked directly with NYC Department of Buildings to ensure project approvals
- Freelance Designer, New York 2003-present
- Created and implemented design plans for residential spaces
 - Consulted with carpenters and contractors over design plans
 - Drew up plans, sections, elevations for renovations and additions
 - Advised clients on appliances, fixtures and finishes
 - Worked with clients to interpret and meet zoning codes and ordinances

SKILLS/ACTIVITIES

- Working knowledge of Microsoft Office, Adobe Photoshop, InDesign, Illustrator, AutoCad, Revit, 3D-Studio
- Fluent in written and spoken Spanish
- Associate Member of The American Institute of Architects
- Associate Member of The U.S. Green Building Council
- Member of The National Historic Trust
- Member of The DC Preservation League
- Registered with the Intern Development Program to work towards licensing